This is why I called so you don't have to call me back

This is what Mr. Allen sent to me - I have the principal's contact info if you think we need the vitals again.

"Thanks very much for looking into this for us. I spoke with the Principal, Donovan Gartletts (cc'd here), and he said they submitted a security checklist and application through Washington Workshops for Notre Dame Catholic. He does not have a copy of the application. If you need the security checklist, Donovan can forward that to you. Their contact at Washington Workshops is Tom Crossan (tom@workshops.org). Please let me know if this information is adequate enough. Thanks Again, John"

We will certainly see what we can do! It would help to have all of the security information to easily identify the group or re-submit if we have to. Do you mind if I reach out to John Allen directly?

Hunt,

Hope this isn't an inconvenience to ask about getting the 8th grade class in for a tour of The White House. There will be 18 kids and 5 adults arriving on the 17th of April and staying through the 23rd. They are currently on a waiting list for April 21st for a White House tour. I appreciate anything you can do to help out Emmett's class. FYI…John Roberts went to Notre Dame grammar school and they'll have the chance to meet him. Should be a great time for the kids. Talk to you soon, Thanks,

John B. Allen
