

NATIONAL ARCHIVES CATALOG

Explore Records on Gender Equality

Join the National Archives and Wikipedia for upcoming edit-a-thons. Interested in learning more about Wikipedia? Passionate about women's rights and gender equality? Help us improve Wikipedia entries related to gender equality using records from the National Archives Catalog. You do not need to have prior experience editing Wikipedia.

AMENDING AMERICA

Gender Equality
Wikipedia Edit-a-thons

NYC - DC - ONLINE

NATIONAL CONVERSATIONS ON

#RightsAndJustice

Join us online for a multi-day editing event! Learn more and register here for the Gender Equality Online Edit-a-thon from October 14 - 22.

Related events:

- Thursday, October 13, 10 am to 2 pm, Gender Equality Edit-a-thon at the National Archives at New York City (in person only). Learn more and register here.
- Saturday, October 22, 10 am to 5 pm, online and in-person edit-a-thon in the National Archives Innovation Hub in Washington, DC. There will be a discussion on National Archives records on WWI nurses and the Red Cross. Register today!

Questions can be sent to innovationhub@nara.gov

Archivist Michael Hussey discussing LGBTQ records at the June 2016 edit-a-thon

New in the Catalog

White House Television Office (Reagan): Video Recordings, 1/20/1981-1/20-1989
Recordings by WHTV film crews of the daily activities of President Ronald Reagan. These activities include Presidential speeches and remarks, Oval Office visits, bill signings, ceremonies and holiday celebrations, press conferences, Heads of State visits, domestic and foreign trips of the President, 1981 and 1985 Inaugural events, 1984 Reagan/Bush Campaign rallies, and the 1984 and 1988 Republican National Conventions.

Questions or comments? Email us at catalog@nara.gov.

