Controlled Unclassified Information

Executive Order 13556

Shared • Standardized • Transparent

Information Security Oversight Office (ISOO)

An Introduction to Marking CUI

- Why We Mark
- Designation Indicator
- Mandatory CUI Banner Marking
- CUI Specified vs. CUI Basic
- CUI Category/ Subcategory Markings
- Limited Dissemination Markings
- Portion Marking
- Marking Multiple Pages
- Supplemental Administrative Indicators

Why We Mark

- The loss or improper safeguarding of CUI could be expected to have a serious adverse effect on organizational operations, organizational assets, or individuals.
  - significant degradation in mission capability to an extent and duration that the organization is able to perform its primary functions, the effectiveness of the functions is significantly reduced;
  - significant damage to organizational assets;
  - significant financial loss; or
  - significant harm to individuals that does not involve loss of life or serious life threatening injuries
- The loss or improper safeguarding of CUI has a direct impact on national security

Designation Indicator

- All documents containing CUI MUST indicate the agency of designation.
  - This may come in several forms, including a letterhead, signature block, or "controlled by line"
- A best practice is also to include the contact information of the designating agency, and identify a point of contact or division within the organization
