DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE?

If you had been a member of the Second Continental Congress in 1776, you were a rebel and considered a traitor by King George III. You knew that a reward had been posted for the capture of certain prominent rebel leaders, and the largest British armada ever assembled was just outside New York harbor. Affixing your name to the document meant that you pledged your life, your fortune, and your sacred honor to the cause of freedom. Would you sign?
