MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS

SUBJECT: Drew Hoffman writes to Mrs. Reagan
Regarding Event in her Honor to be Given by the Quality of Life Dixie
Jaycees - November 11, 1983

On October 5, 1983 Drew Hoffmann, founder and chairman of the Quality of Life program of the Dixie Jaycees of Kentucky, wrote Mrs. Reagan to advise her that she had been selected as the first recipient of the Dixie Jaycees "Quality of Life Award of Merit" for her work with the Foster Grandparent program and her efforts to combat drug abuse. The award will be "presented" at the Quality of Life Ball to be held on November 11. Tickets to the ball are $50 per person, and the proceeds will go to the Northern Kentucky Diabetes Association and the Paul I. Hoxworth Blood Center. As Ann Wrobleski explained in her memorandum to you, the first anyone knew of all this was when we received the October 5 letter, along with a copy of the invitation to the ball "to honour First Lady Nancy Reagan." The letter from Hoffman recognizes that Mrs. Reagan cannot attend the ball, because she will be out of the country with the President, but the date cannot be changed because "plans were made weeks ago."
