RE: Congratulatory Message
to S.E. HUBBARD

Chris Hicks wanted us to run this one by you for approval.

Ward Quaal, an old friend of the President, attended a Broadcast Pioneers dinner a few weeks ago. When he learned that a Presidential greeting had not been requested for the event, he composed one himself and had it read. It was a congratulatory message to the honoree, S.E. Hubbard, founder of Hubbard Broadcasting of Saint Paul, Minnesota. Quaal then sent a letter to Kathy Osborne asking that the message be typed up, signed and sent to Hubbard.

Thank you.

The Honorable Kathleen Osborne
Personal Secretary to the President of the United States
The White House

Dear Kathy:

In recent mailings to our great President, you have seen a letter of mine making reference to the Hubbard family of St. Paul.

On February 4th, Kathy, Mr. S. E. Hubbard, the 90 year old founder of Hubbard Broadcasting, Inc., was honored with a dinner hosted by Broadcast Pioneers at the Pierre in New York.

Prior to the dinner, one of the members of Broadcast Pioneers, a gentleman who called upon President Reagan to present him with the Broadcast Pioneers pin several years ago, had the responsibility of procuring a message from President Reagan for the dinner. When I arrived for this fine broadcasting event on the evening of February 4th, I checked with the master of ceremonies and learned that he had not received such a letter. We learned that the individual who was to contact you or Fred Ryan had not done so. Therefore, knowing how President Reagan respects the work of Broadcast Pioneers and those who make the name "pioneer" important in radio and television, I was presumptuous enough to draft what I thought would be the thoughts of President Reagan had he actually sent such a telegram.

I am enclosing herewith a copy of my humble writing efforts as delivered to the audience, representing that it came from the President of the United States. Needless to say, having known the President over the years and well aware of his belief in and respect for the broadcasting arts, I felt he would not take exception to my move, presumptuous as it was.

Kathy, assuming you approve of what I have written here, I would be most grateful if this same message could be typed on White House stationery and sent to my Chicago office. I will see that it gets to Mr. S. E. Hubbard and his family.

I will explain details to you by telephone, but I wanted you to have this material in writing.

Warmest wishes, and thank you so very much, Kathy, for your cooperation on this matter.

Very sincerely,

Ward L. Quaal
