APPOINTMENT PROCESS PERSONAL INTERVIEW RECORD

DATE OF INTERVIEW: Numerous Meetings in April
CANDIDATE: Seeley G. Lodwick
POSITION: Commissioner, U.S. International Trade Commission
INTERVIEWER: John G. Roberts JGR

Comments

Seeley G. Lodwick is to be nominated a Commissioner of the International Trade Commission (ITC). Under 19 U.S.C. § 1330(c)(5), "[n]o commissioner shall actively engage in any business, vocation, or employment other than that of serving as a commissioner."

The Office of Government Ethics (per Jane Ley) has concurred in this determination.

The ITC enabling statute provides that "Not more than three of the commissioners shall be members of the same political party, and in making appointments members of different political parties shall be appointed alternately as nearly as may be practicable." Two of the three sitting commissioners are Republicans, so Lodwick would fill the Republican quota. Since the last two appointments went to Republicans, Lodwick should not be appointed until the appointment of a non-Republican commissioner. Joe Ryan of Presidential Personnel advises me that two independent nominees are ready to be sent up, and if confirmed they can be appointed immediately prior to Lodwick.
