MEMORANDUM FOR RICHARD A. HAUSER

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR

SUBJECT: Prospective Nomination of Otto J. Reich to be Ambassador to Venezuela

I have reviewed the SF-278 and related materials submitted by Otto Reich in connection with his prospective nomination to be Ambassador to Venezuela. Reich notes that his nomination may be subject to attack because of his previous affiliation with the Council of the Americas, a non-profit association of U.S. companies with investments in Latin America, and because he is identified with the President's policies with respect to Central America. (Curiously, Reich also notes that he worked for the McGovern presidential campaign in 1972.) These concerns are all policy ones that presumably have already been addressed.

[REDACTED]

I have no objection to proceeding with the nomination.
