Jay,

(b) (6), (b) (7)(C) and one of (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) archivists are available to go to the Penn-Biden Center office in DC tomorrow (Tuesday). Is there a point of contact that (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) should reach out to gain access, secure parking, etc.?

(b) (6), (b) (7)(C) is prepared to do an assessment to include volume of material and scope of work.

I can provide more background when you return to the office tomorrow.

Thanks,
Susan

Bob/Pat, following our conversation on Friday, we would like to make arrangements for our staff to come back to the DC Penn-Biden Center space to assess the remaining boxes and take custody of whichever ones we deem appropriate for further review.

Jay Bosanko can coordinate with you on the visit, to take place as early as tomorrow. It is fine for you or your colleagues to be present when we do so.

Please also let us know if there could be any similar materials in the PA Penn-Biden offices?

Pat,

I believe that Gary will be reaching out to you and/or Bob. Based on some discussions this evening, we need to change our approach. I believe that tomorrow we will need to take temporary physical custody of all of the textual (or other) record material (likely not artifacts).

More as this develops. Maybe we can arrange a call for the morning?

Pat,

I made contact and the two POCs will be (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) I do not believe that they can be there before 11:00 a.m. That location does not have an assigned vehicle, so they likely will come in a van associated with our security contractor. We write to follow up on a question you raised below, specifically whether there was a Philadelphia office of the Penn Biden Center and whether any materials may be located at any such office. The answer is that there is not now and never was a Philadelphia office of the Penn Biden Center, and there are not materials there.

Thanks and best,

Thanks Pat. Jay will get back to you with the details.

Also, please ensure that the boxes in your office in Boston remain secure in a locked space and are not accessed by anyone.

Thanks

We can have access to the Penn Biden Center at your convenience tomorrow from just after 9 am through 4 pm or so (though we may ask the Center to facilitate access beyond that time if needed — these were just the times initially communicated to me). If Wednesday is preferred, we can facilitate that, too.

Please let me know who may be coming from the Archives, and I will ensure they are on the security list. I can be reached at any time on my cell at (b) (6), (b) (7)(C)

Bob/Pat, following our conversation on Friday, we would like to make arrangements for our staff to come back to the DC Penn-Biden Center space to assess the remaining boxes and take custody of whichever ones we deem appropriate for further review.

Jay Bosanko can coordinate with you on the visit, to take place as early as tomorrow. It is fine for you or your colleagues to be present when we do so.

Please also let us know if there could be any similar materials in the PA Penn-Biden offices?

Thanks,

Gary

Team,

In the season of gratitude, I want to say THANK YOU (happy exclamation, not screaming) to you both. It truly is a joy and privilege to work with such talented archivists. And I especially want to say thank you for your willingness to "pivot" whenever the situation calls for it. I also want to pass along a message from Jay:

Many thanks to you and your staff for the efforts to try and support the FBI today and to prepare for next Thursday. Hopefully whomever is ill feels better soon. Best wishes to you all for a safe, happy, and healthy Thanksgiving. Safe travels too.

Hi. Any idea as to how many boxes?

Roughly

There are at least 30 in one of the two spaces

We are taking notes on the boxes containing non-paper material and waiting for the authorization to load the boxes of textual.

Thanks. On with them now. Will send you a note quickly.

Okay

We just finished. Please
