

ISAIAH “IKE” RIVERS

Chief Security Office/Senior Information Security Officer

Institute for Defense Analyses

Isaiah Rivers Jr. is the Chief Security Officer and Senior Information Security Officer at the Institute for Defense Analyses (IDA) located in Alexandria, VA. Isaiah has over 18 years of Security experience supporting the DoD and Intelligence Community Industrial Security Programs and 20 years of Military Leadership in support of the DoD and Intelligence Community Industrial Security Programs; Retired Air Force SNCO of 20 Years of Active Service.

Isaiah leads a team of 120 Security professional supporting IDA’s Security Program. Isaiah implements and oversees all aspects of IDA’s Special Access Programs, Personnel Security, Physical Security, Classified Information System Security, and Procedural/Program Security. Coordinating with IDA’s Executive Council, Isaiah implements IDA’s strategy to assess and mitigate risk, manage crises and incidents, maintain continuity of operations and safeguarding of the organization.

He will also serve as IDA’s Insider Threat Program Senior Official, which is responsible for overall company’s operations, including oversight of security. He is also a member of the Alexandria/Arlington Police Department Community Insider Threat Program.

In his security roles, Isaiah has been a champion for government/ industry partnership. Isaiah frequently engages the Defense Counterintelligence and other Intelligence Community Security Agency to improve both the Security program of the corporations he supports, but also industrial security as a whole by participating as an Industrial Representative for the NISPPAC, FFRDC Security Executive Council, and serves on working groups through NCMS, ISWG, NDIA, and ASIS.

Isaiah is married to Alisha Rivers and together they have 5 wonderful children.