

First name	Last name	Hope for 2024-2026 term accomplishments (Sept. 9 mtg.)	Possible bucket(s)
Jason R.	Baron	implementing/fine-tuning past recommendations; public engagement	Implementation
Kevin	Bell	implementing past recommendations	Implementation
Nieva	Brock	aligning U.S. FOIA system w/ others; technology advancements to assist w/ FOIA processing	Implementation Other
David	Cuillier	frequent & voluminous requests; OGIS 3.0	Volume/frequency of requests Other
Whitney	Frazier-Jenkins	building on past recommendations, particularly with regard to FOIA resources & technology	Implementation
Elizabeth	Hempowicz	non-govt. & govt. voices and minds working together to improve FOIA so that it meets its promise	Other
Scott	Hodes	affirming that FOIA responsibilities extend beyond FOIA professionals (the modern-day Sisyphus) & addressing ways to ensure that non-FOIA personnel understand the shared responsibility	Implementation Other
Shelley	Kimball	unduly burdensome/excessively frustrating requests; also bringing life to past Committee recommendations	Volume/frequency of requests Implementation
Margaret	Kwoka	legislative improvements to FOIA	FOIA statutory reform
Frank	LoMonte	reform of deliberative process privilege so we can see the process by which government makes decisions	FOIA statutory reform
Marianne	Manheim	stopping litigation from wagging the dog in FOIA administration particularly since it is a problem for regular requesters whose requests are delayed; bringing more kindness & decency into the FOIA process; technology; training	FOIA statutory reform Implementation Other
Deborah	Moore	identifying barriers to implementation and identifying and prioritizing ways forward	Implementation
Joan	Moumbleaux	absent

First name	Last name	Hope for 2024-2026 term accomplishments (Sept. 9 mtg.)	Possible bucket(s)
Ryan	Mulvey	statutory reform including but not limited to electronic records, fees, foreseeable harm, exemptions, and deliberative process privileges	FOIA statutory reform
Richard	Peltz-Steele	implementation; technology; private info in public sector hands	Implementation Other
Melissa	Pickworth	unduly burdensome requests; FOIA funds	Volume/frequency of requests Other
Alina	Semo	suggested possible buckets (see column D)
Bobak	Talebian	building on past Committee successes; staying ahead of increasing demand of requests	Implementation Volume/frequency of requests
Sarah	Weicksel	advancing technology & decreasing processing times	Implementation Other
Nick	Wittenberg	artificial intelligence	Implementation Other