	LAND CASE FILES
	Land condemnation cases are initiated in the Land Acquisition Section, Land & Natural Resources Division, Washington, DC, and forwarded to various United States Attorney offices for filing in the courts. Many of these cases are handled solely by Assistant United States Attorneys depending upon legal issues involved, amount deposited, amount claimed by landowners, etc. Those cases which are handled solely by United States Attorneys are the most complete file in the Department and contain documents crucial for compliance with current laws. Distribution of funds is sometimes impossible because the landowner cannot be located. Under current Federal law, an order is obtained returning the money to Treasury after remaining on deposit for at least five years and thereafter no time limitation is imposed on the withdrawal of those funds by a claimant. 28 U.S.C. § 2042 (1948), as amended, September 13, 1982, Pub. L. No. 97-258, § 2(g)(4)(D), 96 Stat. 1061, provides:	II-NNA-2083, #1  NCL-118-78-1, #2  NCL-60-82-3, Item 2	2 items

7. ITEM NO	8 DESCRIPTION OF ITEM (With Inclusive Dates or Retention Periods)	9 SAMPLE OR JOB NO	10 ACTION TAKEN
	In every case in which the right to withdraw money deposited in court under section 2041 has been adjudicated or is not in dispute and such money has remained so deposited for at least five years unclaimed by the person entitled thereto, such court shall cause such money to be deposited in the Treasury in the name and to the credit of the United States. Any claimant entitled to any such money may, on petition to the court and upon notice to the United States Attorney and full proof of the right thereto, obtain an order directing payment to him. (Emphasis added.) Several states have passed laws which allow landowners to file claims long after the case is closed. North Dakota has a 20 year curing statute (47-19.1, North Dakota Century Code) which allows for landowners to file claims with the court up to 20 years after final adjudication. Under the current retention of five years, such claims cannot be refuted by the Federal government. Land case files consist of appraisal reports, pleadings, transcripts of hearings, copies of title evidence, correspondence, exhibits, trial data and related papers. Only basic records in condemnation proceedings are filed in the District Courts. Only papers including preliminary and final title opinions summarizing action on each case are maintained by the Land &amp; Natural Resources Division in Washington. The cases here covered contain some work papers, correspondence between plaintiff and the government, and legal pleadings that are not duplicated elsewhere. Original appraisals or title evidence included in the files are transferred to the acquiring agency at the closing of the case file.
