GENERAL

At Cheverly, Maryland:

On 17 May 1961, a live address was established for Gladys G. DANBRUNF at 5611 Jason Street,¹⁰ Cheverly, Maryland, through the cooperation of [redacted] and [redacted] householder at that address.

On the same date, Mrs. [redacted]⁰⁶ her daughter, [redacted]⁰⁶ and son, George, were briefed to the effect that they should accept any cables, letters, telegrams or telephone calls for Mrs. DANBRUNF. In the event any inquiries were received concerning Mrs. DANBRUNF, they were to advise that Mrs. DANBRUNF was residing with them but that she was not available at the moment. They were to determine who was calling and the purpose of the call. If the call was from the cable or telegraph office, Mrs. [redacted]⁰⁶ or [redacted]⁰⁶ was to call back later as Mrs. DANBRUNF and receive the message and request delivery of the written cable or telegram. In the event the inquiry was from any other source, they were to contact the Reporting Agent immediately.

The same individuals were further briefed, in general, as to why Mrs. DANBRUNF was supposedly residing with them and why she was expecting some form of communication. They were informed that Mrs. DANBRUNF was the mother of Mustace H. DANBRUNF, who was being held a prisoner by a foreign government. The mother has sent a cable to her son asking how he is, whether he needs anything, inquiring if there is anything she can do for him, and asking him to please communicate with her. She is now awaiting and expecting some form of reply from him.

On the following day, 18 May 1961, Dr. [redacted]⁰⁶ was⁰⁶ contacted. The above information had been related to him by Mrs. [redacted] at the request of the Reporting Agent. Dr. [redacted]⁰⁶ was requested to notify the (Cheverly) and the (Hyattsville) Post Offices that Mrs. DANBRUNF was residing at his home and any mail received for her should be delivered to his address.

On 22 May 1961, Dr. [redacted]⁰⁶ was again contacted and he advised that he had personally called the Postmistress at the (Cheverly) Post Office regarding delivery of Mrs. DANBRUNF'S mail and had requested
