1. Field traces reveal the following on the CORDERO Calderon family:

- a) Federico was born on 29 March 1912, has been living in Panama for several years, and is currently employed at the Union Club in Panama City.
- b) Antonio had been living for several years in the Pacific Panama Zone city of Quepos, Costa Rica. Recently, he was placed in jail in San Juan de Tibas (a suburb of San José) on a charge of robbery.
- c) Haris was born in San José on 7 February 1920 and was a militant communist prior to and during the 1948 Costa Rican Revolution. After the revolution, he left the Party voluntarily, but was reported to have been actively sympathetic towards communism for the past ten years. Another source reported this month that Haris is visited regularly by communists, who leave printed propaganda with him.
- d) Andruval was born in San José on 12 November 1928 and is currently living in San José, employed as a shoemaker in a shop owned by a communist. He is reported to be sympathetic to communism.
- e) Angela Arantiza was born in San José on 15 March 1915, now living in Mexico with her husband who is a PRDME citizen. They own a house in San José, in which Haris (see c. above) now lives.
- f) Gladys was born in San José on 27 February 1923, is married (common law) to a Spaniard, and has resided in Spain for many years.
- g) Consuela is living in New York City, working in a beauty parlor. There are no available traces on Norma or Isabel.

2. Discrepancies will be noted on the vital statistics as opposed to those in reference. (Costa Rican) Civil Registry files are the Station's source. The Registry had no file on either Norma or Isabel. Station files, inquiries to Station assets, and an investigation conducted by HUBBARD accounted for the narrative portions of the traces. The above traces include all of the information available to the Station.
