ReNYlet to Bureau, 11/5/66 and Bureau authorization to interview subject dated 11/23/66.

Enclosed for the Bureau are nine copies of an LHM, dated and captioned as above.

The subject was not interviewed until 1/9/67, inasmuch as he had moved from his previously known address and was on a three week vacation in Florida over the holiday season.

During the interview the subject claimed he knew nothing of any kind of meeting or conference in Santiago, Chile, while he was there in February, 1966. He said that he did not attend such meetings and also that he was very pro-United States.

It appears that the information in the original allegation in this matter from CIA to the effect that VICTOR DELGADO, with re-entry permit number 9245, was present at Communist Youth Congress in Santiago, Chile, was probably obtained from [redacted]

[redacted] inasmuch as this subject on interview (S) stated he displayed his travel papers to no other persons or agencies. It is also noted that he had a visitors visa to enter Chile which was probably the case of all the delegates and observers to the Communist Youth Congress.

All sources who know the subject advised during this investigation that he, although unactive, is anti-CASTRO, he desires to become a United States citizen.
