JOE LOGAN when interviewed by SAs ROBERT A. COOK and ROEMER on March 23, 1961, advised that his true name was JOE BAGNOLA. He stated he was a former boxer and that JOE LOGAN was his professional name while he was boxing and that he has continued to use this name.

LOGAN stated that he has known GUS ALEX since ALEX was a teenager inasmuch as ALEX was born and reared in the vicinity of 26th and Wentworth on the near South Side of Chicago, which is the same approximate location of LOGAN's former home. He stated that he knows nothing concerning ALEX's activities other than that he knows that ALEX was formerly "GUZIK's man". He stated that GUZIK was a former leader of the old CAPONE mob and that he continued to be a leader in organized crime in Chicago until his death in 1956. He stated that he knew ALEX to be a close companion of GUZIK prior to GUZIK's death in 1956. LOGAN stated he has no knowledge whatsoever concerning ALEX's status in organized crime in Chicago at the present time. He also stated that he had no information concerning any financial interests or investments on the part of ALEX.

JAMES A. MAHONEY III

The records of the CCC contain a memorandum dated September 30, 1954, showing that GUS ALEX was at that time a notorious South Side gambler in Chicago, and a partner of JAMES A. MAHONEY in gambling enterprises on the South Side of Chicago.

DITGARD MAIER

On January 26, 1961, the German Federal Police ascertained that ALEX arrived in Munich, Germany, on January 20, 1961, and stayed at the Hotel Four Seasons. He was seen at the hotel with a woman who was apparently German and that she left the hotel on January 21, 1961, with ALEX apparently en route to the ski area. The German Police subsequently identified this woman as DITGARD MAIER who was at that time residing with her mother in Munich and who formerly resided in Chicago, but whose present address in the United States was 721 Northeast 25th Street, Miami, Florida. Her husband was reported by the German Federal Police to be a solicitor employed in the United States. The German Police further advised that ALEX left Munich, Germany, on January 30, 1961, by Air France Flight and was seen off from the airport in Munich by a woman later determined to be DITGARD MAIER. This leave taking was described as very intimate by Police. DITGARD MAIER was reported by the German Police to be married to one HELMUT MAIER, who was born in Munich, Germany, on <sup>May</sup> 18, 1929. It was determined that the birth date of DITGARD MAIER is December 3, 1938, in Austria. It was further determined by German Police that DITGARD MAIER had planned to fly back to the United States on January 31, 1961, to rejoin her husband HELMUT MAIER, in Miami, Florida.

PAT MARCI ITC

CG T-48 advised that he is an associate of GUS ALEX and that in the late fall of 1958 he had reason to wish to contact ALEX in a great hurry. He stated that therefore he contacted PAT MARCI who immediately arranged a meeting place and time for the informant and for ALEX. The informant stated that consistent with MARCI's arrangements ALEX and FRANK FERRARO showed up at the pre-arranged meeting place at the pre-arranged time in order to conduct the discussion with the informant concerning gambling matters in the First Ward. Informant advised that on the occasion of this meeting ALEX made it very clear to him that no one could operate a handbook or crap game in the First Ward of the City of Chicago without the "OK" of GUS ALEX. Informant described PAT MARCI as being a secretary of Alderman
