ADMINISTRATIVE

PCI SARAH TORRES PERALTA was contacted by SA ROYAL L. BLASSINGAME, on 1/10/63, and the only additional information furnished was that she had determined that the Union is making some kind of payment to JAIME AMADOR's wife, possibly a pension, while he is incarcerated in prison.

PCI VIVIAN YURET NOYA was contacted by SAS A. A. ARMSTRONG, JR. and ROYAL L. BLASSINGAME on 1/10/63. She advised that she dated JAIME AMADOR from approximately April, 1962 until his capture by the police, 8/31/62, and still writes to him in prison, and he writes her. She is also managing his bar, the Hidden Charm, which she has now subleased to two other persons, although she continues to assist in its management. She denied that AMADOR had ever said anything to her about the Union's records which were subpoenaed before the FGJ, SJ, 2/19/62, and advised she knew nothing about the operation of the Union, and AMADOR never discussed the Union with her. She denied that she knew anything at all about Teamsters Union Local 901.
