Here you go! And here is my usual tour spiel:

I've attached your tour confirmation and a map of the Capitol Visitor Center. You will enter the CVC through the entrance at the intersection of East Capitol and First Street, across the street from the Supreme Court and Library of Congress. You will go through security at this point, and please note that food and drink are not permitted in the Capitol unless medically necessary.

After security, go downstairs to Emancipation Hall, where you will meet your tour guide at the North Information Desk, marked as the question mark on the right side of this map. Your tour guide will not arrive until exactly 11:50 AM, so if you are early and they are not there, don't worry.

Please give me a call with any questions

Yup – I'll send you the confirmation as soon as I've got it from the tour office. Shouldn't be long!

That sounds great! I think the East Wing Tours take about 45 min so that should be plenty of time for them to finish up and get over there. Is there a certain confirmation form I send to them?

Thank you for helping with this!

Ok, and that will go for about an hour, do you think? Maybe I'll shoot for any time after 11:30 to give them time to finish up and get over here?

That shouldn't be a problem. What time is their WH tour?

Lorea,

Circling back on this Tour Request from Jim and Sara... I have scheduled the Gallaghers for a WH Tour on Wednesday, August 13. Any chance we can get them into a Capitol Tour on the same day?

Thank you!
Anne Marie

Kathy and Anne Marie,

Capitol tours are much more flexible than White House tours – do you want to book that one first, and then I can work around that?

This is a very sweet family who I befriended on my 65th birthday. I was hoping they could get on the WHTour list and a Capitol tour. Is this doable?"

[redacted]
[redacted] I am happy to arrange a White House tour for the Gallaghers. I will need full names, date of birth, and social security number for each (and city of residence). Also which day of that week you prefer?The tours are usually at 10 am.
