Some background for you on the subject from the Foreign Affairs Manual

The Accountability Review Board (ARB) process is a mechanism to foster more effective security of U.S. missions and personnel abroad by ensuring a thorough and independent review of security related incidents. Through its investigations and recommendations, the Board seeks to determine accountability and promote and encourage improved security programs and practices. In addition, the ARB mechanism enhances the integrity of the visa issuing process by determining accountability in certain instances in which terrorist acts in the United States are committed by aliens.

A Board will be convened for the express purpose of investigating only that incident or those incidents specified by the Secretary. A Board will examine the facts and circumstances surrounding the incident or incidents, and makes written findings in accordance with 12 FAM 035.

Records of the Accountability Review Board are found among in chapter 2, Principle Officers of the Department of State Records Schedules. http://foia.state.gov/\_docs/RecordsDisposition/A-02.pdf.

The NARA approved schedule is job number N1-59-99-16 (items 9a1 and 9b1).
