Under this system the Air Force pays a monetary allowance to the institution at prescribed rates for each enrolled cadet. The institution purchases uniforms and insignia and issues them to cadets. These uniforms are not government property. Accountability procedures are prescribed by the institution. Commutation is a monetary payment made by the government in lieu of supplies or services which the government is otherwise bound by law or regulation to provide. Such funds are provided for specific purposes. The government will require refund of excess unexpended funds and funds which are expended for unauthorized purposes. (Copy being furnished concurrently to GAO)
