1.	This is an amendment to the Bureau of Mines Records Control Schedule No. NC 174-158, Item No. 34. This request is submitted to change the retention period at the Records Center from 10 years to 10 ²⁵ years. The Bureau of Mines, Helium Operations, is involved in nine lawsuits at the present time with other suits pending. Included in the lawsuits are those concerning cancellation of the conservation contracts, property and land settlement, and helium sales. These suits involve approximately $2,000,000,000. Records that are much older than the 10-year retention period for Helium Operations records at the Federal Records Center are being used in these proceedings. For this reason, it is requested that Helium Operations records be retained for a longer period of time. The revised item reads as follows: 34. Helium Plant Production and Operation Files - Break file every year - Hold for five years - Transfer to Federal Records Center. Dispose after 10 years ^{25 years} Destruction when a total of 25 years old. 9/2/75 12-12-75
