	The Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (FLETC) conducts basic law enforcement training for investigative and police officers and agents of 30 participating Federal law enforcement organizations. The Center provides the necessary facilities, equipment and support for the accomplishment of Advanced, In-Service, Refresher and Specialized (AIRS) training. The FLETC also provides training on a space-available basis to law enforcement personnel of 15 other Federal organizations and to personnel of various state and local law enforcement agencies. The FLETC currently trains approximately 6,000 students annually. This number is expected to increase over the next several years. The basic courses for the various organizations are conducted by the FLETC's Criminal Investigator Training Division and the Police Training Division. The Advanced, In-Service, Refresher and Specialized courses for personnel of an individual organization are conducted at the FLETC facility by instruction from the agency involved. The Special Training Division conducts firearms, driver and physical training for both the basic and AIRS programs.

	The FLETC develops the curriculum content and training techniques for use in basic training. The FLETC advises and assists the participating organizations in the production and formulation of their Advanced, In-Service, Refresher and Specialized training requirements. The FLETC was established in 1970 and was originally located in Washington, D.C. The FLETC now conducts operations at their Glynco facility located near Brunswick, Georgia where they moved in 1975. The FLETC maintains a liaison office in Washington, D.C. The FLETC is a bureau of the Treasury Department reporting directly to the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations). The Department of the Treasury is the lead organization for operating the Center, and as such, controls the Center's day to day activities. A Board of Directors, comprised of representatives at the Assistant Secretary level from the major departments which have organizations participating in the Center, and on which there are non-voting members from the Office of Management and Budget, the U.S. Civil Service Commission and the U.S. Capitol Police Board, determines FLETC training policy, programs, criteria and standards and resolves conflicting training requirements. The Center Interagency Working Group (CIWG) serves as a liaison and coordination line between the FLETC, the participating organizations we serve and the Board of Directors. Current composition of the CIWG includes at least one member from each organization which conducts training at the FLETC. CIWG members insure the best interests of this organization are considered and evaluated prior to submission of formal proposals to the Board of Directors for consideration and approval as FLETC policies or directives. The CIWG is actively involved in the Center's training programs involving length of courses and curriculum content as it pertains to the training needs of their law enforcement officers.
