GOVERNMENTAL AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS
WASHINGTON OFFICE

ORGANIZATION HISTORY AND FUNCTION

The Tennessee Valley Authority Act (TVA) was approved on May 18, 1933. In the summer of 1933, before the headquarters were established in the Tennessee Valley, most of TVA's activities were carried out in Washington. The first TVA office opened in Washington, D.C. on May 31, 1933. Staff was employed, conferences with other government agencies were held, and important decisions were made.

In November 1933, there were over sixty persons located in Washington even though the headquarters had already been established in the south. All three Board members had offices in Washington, and Chairman, A. E. Morgan had an individual staff. There was also a separate Information Unit and a branch of the Purchasing Division.

The following is a history of those who have served as Washington Representatives:

	Effective Date	End of Term
Marguerite Owen	December 15, 1933	October 31, 1966
Jacob D. Vreeland	July 16, 1967	July 31, 1973
Lawrence L. Calvert	August 1, 1973	January 6, 1979
Kenneth E. Gray	January 7, 1979	August 23, 1987
Willard Phillips, Jr.	August 24, 1987	--

The Washington Office appeared separately on the TVA organization charts on September 18, 1934, for the first time. It was listed under the Coordination Division (later the Office of the General Manager) in the same block with Knoxville and Chattanooga offices (Knoxville, Chattanooga, and Washington Offices (Assistant Coordinator).

The organization charts, through the chart dated August 1, 1946, (chart 9), do not list the Washington Office; however, the information on chart 9 states "The Office of the General Manager includes the Budget Staff, Information Staff, and Washington Staff, which aid the General Manager in expediting, coordinating, and disposing of current business, with particular reference to preparation of the budget and official reports, public information, and liaison with Congress and Federal agencies."

In September 1957 the organization chart listed the "Washington Staff" reporting directly to the General Manager. The chart of February 7, 1960, listed the "Washington Office " in the block "Office of the General Manager."

The following describes the responsibilities as documented in the TVA Organization Bulletins, Administrative Release System:

The Washington Office responsibilities include maintaining liaison between TVA and Congress, the Executive Office of the President, and Federal agencies in Washington. It supplies information directly or refers to appropriate TVA offices requests for information from the public and from foreign representatives and visitors. (Organization Bulletin, I General Manager, July 18, 1979.)

ORGANIZATION HISTORY AND FUNCTION (continued)

The Washington Office maintains liaison between TVA and Congress, the Executive Office of the President, and Federal agencies in Washington. It supplies information directly to or refers to appropriate TVA offices requests for information from the public and from foreign representatives and visitors. (Organization Bulletin, I General Manager, December 17, 1979)

In a October 1984 reorganization, the Washington Office was removed from the Office of the General Manager and placed under the Office of Corporate Administration and Planning. In a 1987 reorganization, the Washington Office was removed from the Office of Corporate Administration and Planning and placed under the new Office of Governmental and Public Affairs. In a 1988 reorganization the Office of Governmental and Public Affairs changed to Governmental and Public Affairs. The Washington Office provides liaison, information, and other services to Congress, the Executive Office of the President, and Federal agencies in Washington, representatives of foreign governments with which TVA is conducting technical assistance programs, and various nongovernmental groups and individuals. It supplies information directly or refers to appropriate TVA office requests for information from Members of Congress from the Valley and elsewhere, the press, and the public. It tracks bills of interest to TVA, assists the Board and other TVA officials in testifying at congressional hearings, and represents TVA at meetings with Executive Branch and other officials when appropriate. It provides liaison between TVA and nongovernmental groups and individuals with an interest in TVA programs and activities. (Organization Bulletin, I Corporate Administration and Planning, Washington Office, October 31, 1984).

The number of employees in the Washington Office has varied from sixty employees in 1933; to four permanent employees and one temporary in 1975; to seven permanent and one hourly in 1978; and to fifteen permanent and two hourly in 1986.

From its inception in 1933 through organizational changes up to the current date, the purpose and functions of the Washington Office have basically remained the same--to provide liaison services and represent TVA in a broad realm of activities. The range of contacts extends much farther now than in the earlier years.

Because of the information included in the memorandums: "Report on the Reorganization of the Washington Office" dated January 5, 1953; Reorganization of the Washington Office dated January 6, 1953; and "Records removed from Washington Office Files" dated March 6, 1953, they have been made Appendix A to the schedule.

I. RECORD SERIES OF THE WASHINGTON OFFICE
PART A - RECORD SERIES

I. RECORD SERIES OF THE WASHINGTON OFFICE

I.1. WASHINGTON OFFICE GENERAL CORRESPONDENCE FILES

The Washington Office General Correspondence Files contain correspondence documenting the organization's activities since TVA came into existence in 1933. Until TVA's regional offices were established, the Washington Office served as the headquarters for the agency. The file includes correspondence to and from Congresspersons, other Federal agencies, outside organizations, the White House, Valley constituents, state legislators, Valley TVA managers, TVA Board, and the General Manager, etc., concerning activities, programs, and legislation which may affect, impact, or of interest to TVA and its programs.

The correspondence of a substantive nature documenting the operation of the Washington Office such as organization charts and related correspondence; public relations records; policy and procedural material related to the Washington Office; correspondence prepared for the Washington Office Representative's signature; correspondence with the White House; and correspondence, not related to legislation, with Congresspersons will be maintained in the Washington Office for five years.

However, informational copies (primarily duplicate copies distributed for information) of records maintained in official files of other TVA organizations such as Chairman's File, General Manager's File, major office files, and division files have short-term value.

The file has been classified by two TVA standard information retrieval systems:

1933 to 1978 - TVA standard decimal system

1979 to date and continuing - TVA standard alpha-numeric system

I.2. LEGISLATIVE FILES

The Washington Office legislative files include records documenting TVA's proposed budget and apportionment record. The records are accumulated in the course of formulating the TVA budget for submission to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), Congress, and ultimately the President of the United States for approval. The file includes legislation that may affect TVA and its programs. Legislative records are maintained in the "Legislative File" and the "Washington Office Correspondence File." In the Legislative File they are filed numerically by Congress number, then by Senate Bill Number and/or House Bill Number. Related correspondence is filed with the corresponding bill. Two calendar years comprise one Congress and includes a 1st Session and a 2nd Session.

DISPOSITION

A. Records of the following:

- 1933 to 1974 (73rd Congress, 1st Session - 93rd Congress, 2nd Session) (Also referred to as Marguerite Owen's Red Boxes)
- 1955 to 1960 (84th Congress, 1st Session - 86th Congress, 2nd Session) (These records were transferred to the Office of the General Counsel in June 1979 to be held for review. They were inadvertently incorporated into the Law Library and put into bound volumes.)
- 1975 to 1978 (94th Congress, 1st Session - 95th Congress, 2nd Session)
- 1979 to 1982 (96th Congress, 1st Session - 97th Congress, 2nd Session)
- 1983 and continuing (98th Congress, 1st Session)

Permanent. Break file at conclusion of each Congress. Retain two previous Congresses (4 years) in the Washington Office. Transfer earliest Congress (2 years) to Knoxville Records Center 4 years from date of file break. Transfer each Congress' records to the National Archives, Atlanta Branch, 10 years from completion of Congress or date of file break.

I.3. TESTIMONY FILE

TVA managers often testify in hearings before a Congressional committee or subcommittee. The testimony may be required or it may be voluntary. The subjects may not always be related to TVA's programs but may require TVA's expertise or knowledge of a specific subject. Final testimonies are prepared in the Washington Office and are typescript testimonies.

The testimonies dating 1933 to 1978 were filed in the Legislative Files with the appropriate legislation. Beginning 1979 the testimonies have been filed in a separate testimony file. They are filed by Congress, alphabetically by committee, then chronologically by date. The estimated annual accumulation is 10 cu. ft.

DISPOSITION

Permanent. Break file biannually by Congress. Transfer to Knoxville Records Center 4 years from date of file break. Transfer to the National Archives, Atlanta Branch, in 4-year blocks when ~~oldest~~ material is 14 years after the completion of Congress.
