Group Title	Defense Civilian Personnel Advisory Service (DCPAS):
Group Description	The Defense Civilian Personnel Advisory Service (DCPAS) develops, implements, and monitors Department of Defense (DOD) civilian human resources (HR) plans, policies, and programs for more than 950,000 employees across the world. As the Department of Defense enterprise leader in the development and delivery of civilian personnel policies and Human Resources solutions that strengthen mission readiness, DCPAS provide leadership; consults and trains; ensures HR practices align to and support current policy; develops tools and cross-functional programs to support efficient and innovative Component operations and workforce development; and delivers solutions and strategies that bridge the gap between policy, process, and technology to increase operational effectiveness and strengthen mission readiness.
DAA-0330-2022-0015-0001	STATUS: Active
ITEM GENERAL INFORMATION
Item Title	Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA) Items Related to 9/11/2001.
Item Description	The Defense Civilian Personnel Advisory Service (DCPAS) maintains case files to facilitate processing claims under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA). FECA claims may be submitted by DoD civilian appropriated fund employees and/or their survivors in order to obtain monetary, medical, and similar benefits under the FECA by reason of injuries sustained while in the performance of civilian duty. Historical events such as the terrorist attacks which occurred at the Pentagon on September 11, 2001 resulted in claims for injuries or fatalities that occurred during that attack. Case files may include: initial written inquiries, documentation of claim acceptance or denial, claim forms, personnel actions, beneficiary information, and other pertinent information that reference the injury or death of DoD employees during key national events, such as September 11, 2001. Note: OSD will consult with NARA in the event of similar historical events in the future.
